One Week To Go!

It's only one week until Web Summit and the Cosmo Tech team is getting prepared for Europe's biggest technology show of the year!

We'll be exhibiting on stand G130 in the GROWTH area in the category Enterprise Software Solutions on Tuesday, 6 November.

We have a strictly limited number of original Cosmo Tech 'Cosmonaut' toys to give away to visitors to the Cosmo Tech stand. Click the button below to let us know, and we'll hold one for you on the day!

Keynote Address Augmented Intelligence

Cosmo Tech co-founder and Executive Chairman Michel Morvan will be delivering a keynote address at Web Summit on Augmented Intelligence.

Catch him on the Growth Stage at 2:30pm on Wednesday 7 November, and then afterwards on the same stage when he'll join other startup leaders in a roundtable discussion on scaling startups to hypergrowth.
